

Telephone privacy is very important to me. Please do not inact anything that will remove the protection that I've recently been provided by my state government (Indiana). Since the law, I can now have dinner and watch television at night in peace. My rights to privacy should supercede the rights of a salesman "in" my home.